Magie Flute Gets Second Money Instead of Bill Curtis-Mr. Taylor Rides Arrahgowan to Victory in Highweight Event

-Handleap for Duke of Kendal. WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 .- The stewards at Bennings to-day took exception to the official ruling of Judge McDowell, who placed Bill Curtis second in the fifth race. They ordered Bill Curtis's number taken down and substi-tuted that of Magic Flute, with Bill Curtis third Judge McDowell stated afterward that he had placed Bill Curtis second, a dedsion that met with the approval of a majority of the crowd. The action of the stewards s without precedent in the history of racing the race in question Lady Lavish was a 3 to 5 favorite, but she had to be extended in a heavy drive to win by a head. Magic Flute, who ran in the name of L. P. Sharkey, was a 15 to 1 shot, and pressed the favorite hotly in the stretch, but Bill Curtis, 12 to 1, came with a great turn of speed near the end and apparently beat Magic Flute by a good head. When the numbers were changed there was no end of fault finding.

It was only an ordinary card to-day, there being no stake events, and the weather was threatening. The track was slow, but there was not much scratching. Interest centred in the fourth event, a highweight selling affair, at six furlongs, in which gentlemen riders had the leg up. Mr. Dion Kerr rode old Demurrer, who was an odds on favorite, while his brother, Mr. C. Kerr, had the mount on Paul Clifford, at 11 to 5. Mr. Taylor of Baltimore, however, rode a splendid race on Arrahgowan, backed down to fives, and won by a head from Demurrer, who was two and a half lengths in front of Paul Clifford. Malden made the running to the head of the stretch.

E. R. Thomas's Duke of Kendal, 11 to 5, won the handicap for three-year-olds and upward at a mile and seventy yards, from Mrs. Frank Foster, the latter taking the measure of Arden rather easily. In the second race the start settled the result, Mr. Cassidy letting Bon Mot, the favorite, getting away running with several lengths the best of it. He was never in danger of being caught and galloped home six lengths back Locket, 6 to 1, took third money from Meistersinger by a head.

Ered Damsel, the choice in the first race,

Red Damsel, the choice in the first race, which there were eighteen starters, won easily by a length and a half from Unterock, 5 to 1, the latter beating Mary Worth, 60 to 1, by three parts of a length. Conkling, 9 to 10, favorite, had no trouble in taking the third event from Burdette, 25 to 1, by two lengths, Clear the Arena, 7 to 1, finishing third. Redfern carried off the honors in the saddle-and four favorites won. FIRST BACE.

AFTER SEAWANHAKA CUP. The White Bear Yacht Club Will Have Four Boats Built.

The members of the white Bear Yacht Club of Minnesota are going to make a strong effort to capture the Seawanhaka Challenge Cup for small boats, which has been held so long by the Canadians. This cup was won sev-eral years ago by the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club, and it has been successfully defended every year since then. Last season the Manchester Yacht Club tried to win it, but falled, and the Manchester and White Trotting Body Also Relieves Suspension of but failed, and the Manchester and White Bear yacht clubs and an English club challenged. The White Bear's challenge was accepted. The members of the club have arranged to have four boats built. G. Amundsen of White Bear Lake will construct one fron his own designs. His small boats have proved very fast. Another will be built by Jones & Laborde of Oshkosh, Wsi., by Jones & Laborde of Oshkosh, Wsi., who built the Tecuriseh, the challenger of two years ago. B. B. Crowninshield is to design the third boat, and Charles D. Mower the fourth. This will mean that the club will have two boats of Western design and two of Eastern design in its trials, and the best of the lot will be sent to Canada.

The Manchester Yacht Club, last season's challenger, also will take a hand in the fight. E. A. Boardman will design a boat, and the spars, rigging and sails of the Kolutoo, the boat isfeated by the Canadians, will be used on the new hull. This gear is all in good condition, and it will be a great saving of expense to the Manchester yachtsmen. If their new boat is fast it will be sent to White Bear Lake to take part in the trials there.

HORSE SALE AT NEWMARKET. Dispersal of Whitney and Keene Stables Adds to Its Importance.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, Dec. 3.—The December sale of racehorses at Newmarket began to-day. The sales this year are regarded as of more than usual importance because of the dispersal of the Whitney and Keene stables and the recent deaths of Prince Soltykoff and the recent deaths of Prince Soltykoff and Sir J. Blundell Maple, two of the most prominent figures on the turf.

The report to-day was that Sir J. Blundell Maple's horses would not be offered for sale individually. The Duke of Roxburghe, who married Miss Goelet, is buying his Newmarket training establishment outright. The local agent of the estate acknowledges that he has been instructed to show a gentleman over the training quarters with a view to their purchase. He will not, however, divulge the name of the prospective purchaser.

ERRING HORSEMEN PUNISHED.

TWO AND SHRIMP, A "RINGER," EXPELLED BY BOARD.

New Yorker-Resolution Is Adopted for Purpose of Bringing About Uniform Rules Throughout the Country. Devoted largely to cases that have but little interest for the general public was the session of the National Trotting Association board of review in the Murray Hill Hotel yesterday. E. E. Moffett and T. A. Moffett of Thorntown, Ind., and the bay gelding Little Jap, 2:15, were expelled. The defendants were found guilty of "ringing" the horse as Shrimp.

The chestnut pacing mare Delsea, 2:21½, a good winner on the snow path over the Speedway last winter, and W. M. Gregory of Manhasset, L. I., were placed under the ban because the mare was raced this year as Elsie. Both horse and owner stand suspended until the recording fee of $50 is paid for change of name. Jeremiah Murphy of this city was expelled by the board of review on Dec. 18, 1897, for irregularities in starting a horse out of the proper class. Yesterday Murphy asked to have the penalty removed. The case was continued. The secretary was ordered to bring a case against Barney Demarest under section 4 of Rule 2. Demarest drove horses owned by Murphy while under ex-pulsion, contrary to the rules governing such acts.

R. L. Davis of this city had an unusual case with the association at Newburgh, N. Y. According to Davis's testimony he had settled in full with the secretary, and the amount of entrance fees on two nominations was given to him because of his horses' lameness and inability to start. Later, another officer of the association suspended Davis for non-payment of the entrance fees. The board granted Davis relief from the suspensions. The secretary gave out the following resolution, which was acted upon and adopted by the board:

NEW HAVEN, R.Y., Dec. 5.—The first trial of the fall Aged Stake of the National Foxhunters' Association was run to-day on the Cecil farm. The nineteen hounds entered in the event were cast at 5:30 o'clock and in a short time had a red fox going. The chase of the hours the fox back-tracked and ran near the group of hunters etanding on watch on a bluft. The sperisment, forgetting the first point on horseback, and in making a fence several of them was seriously hurt. The fox took a hole at the foot of the bluff on being so closely pressed, and the trial came to an end. Another trial will be made to-morrow, when it is believed a decision will be reached.

Sprinter Westney Suspended by English A. A. A.

J. S. Westney, the former University of Pennsylvania sprinter, has been suspended by the English Amateur Athletic Association until July, 1904. His offence against the amateur laws was the tendering of an entry without its being accompanied by the necessary fee. During the entire athletic season this year Westney, with A. F. Duffey of Georgetown as a companion, toured England, Ireland Bootland. They were well received everywhere, but Duffey made the biggest killing. Westney raked in some handsome prizes and returned late in the fall. HARKNESS AFTER AUTO CUP. Young Clubman Determined to Be in International Race Next Year. H. S. Harkness, the young millionaire clubman, said yesterday that he will enter the lists for the international automobile race again next year and will build at least race again next year and will build at least one racing machine for the contest. It was his idea to build three racing cars, he says, but he was fearful of interference by the Association of Licensed Automobile Manufacturers, although he has no present intention of embarking in the industry of automobile manufacture.

Mr. Harkness says that the racing car he built last year for the cup race, and later used in Europe, is good enough to compete in the international contest, and that he may enter it, but he will build a new one in order to try improvements, and then choose between them. He evidently is set upon being in the race. The only other candidate for the American team positively known to be such is Barney Oldfield, with Buillet II. No entries have been filed as yet with the Automobile Club of America. The time for the filing expires on Dec. 15, and the club must send its challenge to the German club by Jan. 1.

M'GOVERN TO FIGHT?

Despatch Says He Is to Battle in Chicago

-May Meet Jordan. According to a despatch from Chicago Terry McGovern is to enter the ring again. This will doubtless surprise his friends, who were under the impression that his hands were so bad that he would be com-pelled to rest for at least a year. It is said pelled to rest for at least a year. It is said McGovern's opponent will be Young Mowatt and that the encounter is to be decided in Chicago the first week in January. Mowatt is no novice and has a fine record. He has fought the best at his weight, 124 to 126 pounds, with success. His latest fight was a victory over Kid Broad.

McGovern has received the most trouble from his left hand. He broke it in a fight with Billy Willis in Philadelphia several weeks ago. There is also talk of McGovern crossing arms with Ben Jordan. It is understood that the ex-champion and the Englishman are to have it out before one of the Boston clubs. McGovern is willing to go ahead with the scrap at once but just how Jordan feels about it is uncertain. He is in England and has been communicated with. The impression prevails that if he receives sufficient expense money he will come here and fight.

Hughey McGovern's Rattling Six-Round Ficht.

In the first three rounds Allen held the upper hand, but after that McGovern had things his own way. In the final round McGovern did not hear the final bell and landed a right hook on Allen's jaw. In return the latter punched Hughey on the head. They clinched and the seconds of both rushed into the ring to separate the men. It looked like a free fight, when Police Captain Thougson seut four of his men to quell what looked like a small riot.

Better than the Pacific You can bathe in California at any time of year and at almost any point on the Coast. But the strong probability is you won't. There are other things to do that are better worth doing and, besides, there are better places to bathe in than the cool waters of the Pacific. All along the coast-at San Diego, Coronado, Santa Barbara, Monterey and a dozen other places that might be named, luxurious bath houses have been built, where the water, fresh from the sea, is heated and tempered to your liking.

"No," corrected Mr. Willis. "Forty-five minutes."

Mr. Willis turned to the teachers and said: "I am sure we will all be glad to hear from Mr. Manley again. He will speak from Mr. Manley again. He will speak here to-night."

Mr. Manley, pale with anger, again raised his voice and said:

"I hope to be able to finish my address to you at some other time under different auspices. I am from Harvard University, where our addresses are not limited like the rounds of a boxing bout."

Then he picked up his coat and went out, pausing, however, to say that he would not deliver his address to-night. Later he reconsidered his determination and spoke at the evening session on "Shylock."
